resulting, which it may deem to require investigation.

15. Either of the said commissioners, in all matters investigated or examined by the board, may summon witnesses and require the production of documents, and may administer oaths and take testimony. The fees of such witnesses, for attendance and travel, shall be the same as for witnesses for the Commonwealth in criminal cases before the county courts, and shall be paid in the same manner, upon the certificate of the president of the board. Summons for such witnesses shall be served and upon ecrtificates of the president, as afore-of such other matters as they may deem expedient. When the returns received from any corporation is not in due form, or probably erroneous, the board shall notify the corporation to amend the same within fifteen days. The board shall prepare such tables and abstracts of all the returns as they may deem expedient, and their annual report shall be transmitted to the Governor before the first Wednesday in December in each year, to be laid before the Legislature, or if the Legislature be not in session, one copy of such report shall be forwarded by mail to each member thereof by the Secretary of the Commonwealth. The original of the returns, or amended returns, subscribed and sworn to by the directors of the several corporations, shall be preserved in the office of the board.

18. The salary of the president of the said board shall be $2.500 per annum, and of the other two members $1.200 per annum each, and of the clerk thereof one thousand dollars per annum. And the said board shall be allowed the further sum of one thousand dollars per annum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to pay the rent of the office of such board and all other expenses which they may incur-all of said sums to be paid quarterly out of the treasury of the Commonwealth out of money not otherwise apprepriated.

19. The said commissioners and their clerk, and any accountant or other expertemployed by them, shall be transported free upon every railroad in this State when travelling on official business.

20. An act entitled an act to create a Railroad Commissioner for the State of Virginia and define his duties, approved March 31, 1877, is hereby repealed, and the office of Railroad Commissioner, as created by said act of March 31, 1877, is hereby repealed, and the office of Railroad Commissioner for the State of the board shall impair in any manner the legal duties and obligations of any such corporation, nor impair in any manner the legal duties and obligations of any such incurrent and commissioner in any way the rights of the Commonweal corporation, nor impair in any way the rights of the Commonwealth or individuals in reference to any matter passed upon by such board, or the legal liability of such corporation for the consequences of its acts, or the neglect or mismanagement of any of is agents or servants.

Brown, of Prince George, was made secretary, and John James, Jr., assistant secretary. The president made his report, which was very encouraging. Species were delivered by several members, and then the Chair aunounced that the election of officers was next in order. The Association proceeded to that work with the following result: President, Albert T. Ellis, of Goochland: Vice-President, E. T. Ellis, of City Point: Secretary, E. W. Brown, of Prince George, G. City Point: Tressurer, John James, Sr., of Henrico: General Superintendent, Joseph M. Funn, of Powhatan: Solicitor, Giles B. Jackson, of Henrico, Board of Directors: Sedgwick Willis, of King William: T. P. Harris, of Powhatan; John J. Harris, of Goochland: W. C. Johnson, of Richmond city. On taking the chair President Ellis thanked the Association for the honor conferred upon him, and said: "I am glad to see that we are progressing in the right direction. Though we owe a delit of graffinde to the Republican party. I believe a change in the Federal Government is a blessing to colored people, because our most talented men were the gradest politicans. Let us rest assured that we are freemen and American citizens under Cleycland the same as under Blaire, for all that we want is equality before the done in the past."
After some routine business the Association adjourned to meet on Tuesday the 30th day of December, 1884.

Mr. Stuart (Mr. Cardwell in the chair)

The House met at noon-Speaker Stuart

Mr. Stnart (Mr. Cardwell in the chair) made a strong speech against the bill. He declared that the foreign or non-resident n angement of the Richmond and Danville railread were trying to oust the resident management of the Virgina Midland railread. He thought the bill would endanger the best interests of his constituency, and declared it to be his determination to oppose it with all his power.

Messrs. Evans of Richmond, Dunlop, Anderson of Rochbridge, and Reen opposed the bill. Messrs, Gibson and Opic favored it.

Day. RICHMOND, Va., November 26, 1884. DURKER'S SALAD DRESSING AND COLD-MEAT To the Editor of the Dispatch : on a bat man. And re us pray that Fresholm enterbeet Cleveland may commanne with our Father in Heaven as solomon did. When God appeared to Solomon at Gibson God said, "Ask what I shall give thee," and Solomon said: "Give, therefore, Thy servant an understanding heart to judge Thy people that I may discern between good and bad," "And the speech pleased the Lord that he had asked this thing,"—I. Kings, 3d chapter. Let us also pray that men may realize more and more that "man's chief end is to glorify God and enjoy Him foreyer," Let men, business-men, know that the highest honor is to be "diligent in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord." Business-men ought to live on the highest pinnsels of Christianity, but they can only do so by praying to God, who is simightly and withing to answer prayer. Men must learn to depend upon God for blessings in this life as well as in the life to come. Let men "seek first the kingdom of God and its righteaumers and all these Much has been said about a work-house, and so far nothing has been done, though no doubt there are those who have good schemes to present. Whatever is undertaken should be begun at once, that the same committee of the Council which considered the matter may be able to report on it in time for action to be taken. The last report was killed by being originated too near the close of the terms of office of the councilmen.

Let us get the present Conneil to work, then, at once; and to do this I would suggest that Judge Atkins, a warm advocate of the scheme, should call through the papers a meeting in his court-room some suitable evening in the near future, at which a popular expression of the people's wishes in the matter would be sent up to the Council for their consideration, and possibly some plan be presented to them which
